Recognizing First Responders

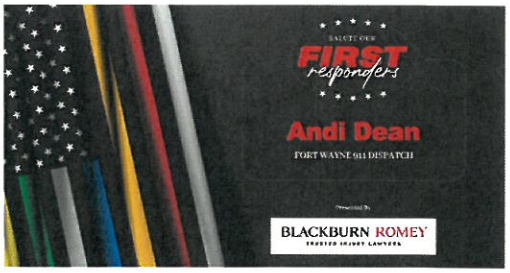

Each month Blackburn Romey Law Firm, along with K105 in Fort Wayne and B100 in Mishawaka are recognizing first responders who perform exceptional service in their particular field. October honorees were Jeremy Gerndt and Andy Dean.

Jeromy Gerndt
Clay Fire Territory

At just 28 years old, Jeromy Gerndt has dedicated 9½ years to serving his community as an Engineer/Paramedic with Clay Fire Territory. A former Clay Fire Kids Camp camper, he now leads the program, inspiring children through hands-on fire safety and EMS experiences. Jeromy's commitment to public safety and lifelong learning shines through his continued training in Hazmat, EMS and fire safety. His leadership, passion for helping others, and dedication to educating the next generation make him an outstanding asset to his profession and community.

Andi Dean
Fort Wayne 911 Dispatcher

"This is a job no one really thinks about," said the person who nominated Dean. "(Dean) does an amazing job of handling calls and remaining calm which makes it possible for her to keep callers as calm as possible while she quickly assesses their situation. She's then able to dispatch the proper personnel and equipment for the emergency. She's been working a lot of extra time which can be very stressful, yet she takes all of this in stride."
